

PUBLIC

LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

Maysville Weather.

What May Be Expected Here During the Next Thirty-Three Hours.

THE LEDGER CODE.

WEATHER—FAIR;
Blue—SAY OF KNOW;

Black—TWILIGHT; WELL; WELL;

Black; NOT SHOWN CHANGE WE SEE;

BE THE above hours, reading of 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going on a visit, please drop us a note to their effect.

Mr. Clark Clinkinbeard left yesterday for Winchester.

Miss Ethel Suiser is visiting Miss Jessie Yancey of Bernard.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Martin and little son have returned to their home at Winchester after a visit to relatives here.

Mrs. Mary Lisby and daughter, Mrs. Anna Millman, who have been the guests of Mr. I. M. Lane and family, left yesterday for their home at Coatesville, Ind.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 6 o'clock a. m.

Mr. Dewey Gutter of West Third street is confined by illness to his home.

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will be February 24th.

For chapped hands and rough skin use Bay's Elitine, at Post Office Drug-store.

Mr. S. B. Chun has commenced work on the Improvements to Beechings's store.

Regular meeting this evening at 7 o'clock of Dekalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F.

Mr. F. M. McMurphy, Leo H. Gray and J. L. Basden were elected to fill vacancies in the Board of Deacons of the Christian Church.

At the First Baptist Church, Sunday the Rev. J. W. Porter received the unanimous call to remain as Pastor of the Church for the ensuing year.

The funeral of Miss Mary Cawell will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church and the remains will be interred at Washington.

Mr. G. S. Judd leaves today for Seattle, Wash. Misses Jessie Judd and Mary Hulett will leave shortly for the same place, where the family will hereafter reside.

THE LEDGER leads in all, and is the favorite paper of the people.

W. S. Talbott, a prominent citizen of Bourbon county, died after a brief illness at Columbia, S. C., aged 53.

John Williams, who has been a patient at the City Almshouse for about three months, died yesterday of consumption.

Prof. Bullet, teacher of Violin. Beginners or advanced pupils taken. Address Prof. Bullet, 216 East Fifth street, Maysville.

Any one who has borrowed a book written by Johnson, "The Western Border," would please return the book to Mr. Fitch at Helena, C. H. White.

Miss Clara Russell, formerly of this city, will today marry at Cincinnati. The fortunate gentleman is said to be an old-time beau, who renewed his oath upon the death of his wife.

Lexington's new Courthouse, which cost about $20,000, and is one of the finest in the state, will be dedicated the first Monday in February. The old Courthouse burned in May, 1887.

Governor Taylor has appointed Hon. W. H. Wadsworth of this city one of the Trustees for the State A. and M. College at Lexington. Mr. A. P. Goodge of Maysville is among the retiring Trustees.

Figures compiled by Chief Hitchcock of the Foreign Markets Division of the Agricultural Department show that in the five years from 1884 to 1889 inclusive our agricultural exports aggregated $605,500,000.

Tuberculosis of the Chest is the only real disease, therefore propelling physicians to prescribe the most drastic cases. Price 50 cents in bottles; tubes; 100, 200, 300, 500.

Special Request.

In answering advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, and when buying from a merchant, it is the desire of the public that our readers are especially requested to state that they are the advertisement in THE PUBLIC LEDGER. This will not cost nothing, and it will be greatly appreciated by both the advertiser and the editor.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1900.

PRICE—ONE CENT.

The Paris Christian Church has extended a call to the Rev. Lloyd Darse of Buffalo, N. Y., to succeed Rev. J. S. Sweeney as Pastor.

French Language taught by Prof. H. H. East, conversational method, total hours, free. For terms address Prof. H. H. East, Fifth street, Mayville.

The marriage of Mr. J. F. Watson of Mayville and Miss Lillie W. Hoden of this city will take place Wednesday, January 31st, at 2 p. m., at the First Baptist Church, Rev. J. W. Porter officiating.

Robert H. Ferguson, a wealthy and prominent farmer of near Paris, died at Eustis, Fla., where he had gone for the benefit of his health. He was about 40 years of age and leaves a wife and two children.

The papal mass uniting Mr. Maurice F. Coughlin and Miss Catherine Fitzgerald will be celebrated at St. Patrick's Church tomorrow morning at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. W. P. Dickeson of Marmontown and Mr. Dennis Fitzgerald, Jr., brother of the bride, will be the servers.

The International Barbers' Union of America is preparing to make a strong effort for the passage of a bill by the Legislature for establishing proper sanitation methods in the business, also for a State Board which shall issue licenses to engage in the business to such persons as pass its examination. The matter will likely be in the hands of a committee, which is to be appointed at a meeting of the Union to be held in Louisville all over the state, the last of Middleport Monday night.

Master Henry Donlan, the most wonderful boy soprano in America, is creating a great stir everywhere. The Boston Daily Spyglass quotes from The Salem News says: "He seems to fairly carry the audience by storm. His voice is a beautiful, high soprano, true and ringing, a fullness and power unusual in one of such a boy. He handles his voice. His three selections were as well received as that of his youthful singer."

All matter for publication must be handed in before 6 o'clock a. m.

THE TOBACCO FAIR.

Squire T. J. Pickett Will Register the Samples Sent.

The gentleman who is in charge of registering samples for the Tobacco Fair is Squire T. J. Pickett, an expert of Internal Revenue, a Mason county farmer and genial, capable man. Samples are coming in and the chances are largely in favor of a great exhibit.

The farmers of Mason county will have to humbly themselves to outnumber our Ohio visitors.

Don't forget there are two premiums for white and yellow corn.

If you have an item of news, please call me at the Ledger, Telephone 32, and let us have it.

THREE STRAIGHTS.

That's the Record Made By the Monarchs Last Night.

At the Mayville Club Bowling Alleys a record was made by the Monarchs.

Mr. C. C. Cullinan, the Monarchs' Captain, and his team, won the "Three Strights" played three games, the former club winning the series.

Following were the scores:

Monarchs.....172 175 150

Hawks.....129 168 184

Cullinan.....145 150 173

Morford.....152 157 164

704 791 761

736 796 768

58 55 57

Limestones.....161 182 171

Roper.....110 165 180

T. M. Russell.....189 161 161

Harney.....127 146 141

730 763 764

The Rubes and Wimmers meet on the Limestones Friday night.

Coughs and colds come uninvited, but you can quickly get rid of them with a few doses of Comfrey or Yer. Price 50 cents to cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

Persons who had a lot of exposure are subject to rheumatism, neuritis and lameness will find a valuable remedy in Baldwin's Balsom Liniment which banishes pains and subdues inflammations. Price 50 cents to cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

Figures compiled by Chief Hitchcock of the Foreign Markets Division of the Agricultural Department show that in the five years from 1884 to 1889 inclusive our agricultural exports aggregated $605,500,000.

Tuberculosis of the Chest is the only real disease, therefore propelling physicians to prescribe the most drastic cases. Price 50 cents in bottles; tubes; 100, 200, 300, 500.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER.

10 East Third Street, Mayville, Ky.

</

